

Valentine's Disco Cruise

just £35 per ticket

Party on the River Thames with your loved one this Valentine's Day. Celebrate in style aboard one of London's most exclusive party boats for an evening to remember on the 14th February 2010.

Based on the success of our all year round Friday and Saturday Party Cruise packages, we are offering a similar package on Valentine's Night. A 4 hour Cruise, a Welcome Drink, a Fork Buffet, an unrivalled Disco experience on the upper deck, plus a complimentary Gift per couple. In the Lower Saloon you can enjoy a relaxing drink and chat while you gently glide by the ever changing Thames Scenery.

Drinks are served on a cash basis at Pub prices. Each vessel used is fully equipped, built and maintained to high safety standards and perfect for an entertaining night out. All have fully enclosed decks with central heating and clear views from all levels along with outside areas too.

Riverboat Parties are unique to London's Nightlife and are unbeatable value-for-money. As a couple you can enjoy the romance of the illuminated Thames bridges and who knows, if you're single, you may even find love on the dance floor!

The cruise (subject to tidal conditions) should travel between Chelsea Harbour & the Thames Barrier covering the best sights.

Special features include;

- Glass of wine on arrival
- Resident D.J. who plays good mix of chart music from the past to the present
- Fork Buffet
- Cash Bar; normal pub prices for all drinks
- Complimentary gift per couple
- Central London Pier (most likely Embankment Pier)
- There is a limited number of chairs and tables ensuring a good party atmosphere. There is no reserved seating.
